

Information Systems Manager – The Newton County Water & Sewerage Authority has a job opening for a full time Information Systems Manager. This is a highly technical position directing the full range of information management resources for the Authority. This position plans and implements advanced technology for complex application systems and telecommunications. The Information Systems Manager is responsible for the development, maintenance of management information systems, as well as, management of diverse hardware, information analysis, and software and equipment facilities with various technical specialties. Candidates should submit a resume to Tracey Clark, Human Resources Director email/ fax (770)786-4536 to tclark@co.newton.ga.us.com.